IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT SEYFARTH'S REPRESENTATION OF YOUR EMPLOYER AND ABOUT THE INFORMATION THAT YOU GIVE TO SEYFARTH

Disclosure of Sole Legal Representation of Employer

In this immigration matter, Seyfarth Shaw LLP ("Seyfarth") solely represents and serves as attorneys for your current or future employer and does not represent or serve as your own or your family's personal immigration attorneys. This type of legal representation for one party only is called "sole representation" and is intended for the benefit of your employer based on the company's legitimate business interest in employing or continuing to employ you as a foreign citizen who requires employment authorization in the United States. As lawyers for your employer only and not for you or your family, Seyfarth will disclose to your employer all material information relating to your immigration matter, even if such information is confidential to you or your family (meaning that any information or documents relating to this immigration matter that you or your family members disclose or provide to Seyfarth must and will be provided to your employer). For example, if you are no longer authorized to work, Seyfarth would be required to inform your employer of the legal consequences of continued employment, or, if you disclosed the intention to resign from employment, Seyfarth is required to, and would, disclose that fact to your employer.

In the event that the employment relationship is terminated or materially changed by either your employer or you, you understand and agree that (a) the law may impose legal obligations on your employer and Seyfarth as counsel to your employer to make disclosures of the relevant circumstances to one or more U.S. federal or state government agencies, (b) the law may create opportunities to preserve for your employer certain immigration-related benefits based on applications or petitions initially submitted on your behalf, and (c) Seyfarth would continue to solely represent your employer in fulfilling such legal obligations or securing such immigration-related benefits, even if those actions may be contrary to your or your family members' wishes or interests. In summary, in the sole representation context, Seyfarth is obligated to advise your employer of what is in your employer's best interests -- even if that may not be in the best interests of you or your family members.

Your Waiver of Legal Representation

By clicking "I accept" below, you agree that Seyfarth only represents your employer in connection with your own and your family members' immigration matters and that Seyfarth does not, and will not, represent you or your family. The benefit that you and your family members may enjoy by reason of Seyfarth's representation of your employer is merely an incidental consequence, in the nature of an employee fringe benefit, of Seyfarth's representation of your employer and is not intended to create, and does not create, an attorney-client relationship between or among Seyfarth and you or your family members.

By clicking "I accept" below, you agree for yourself and for your family members to sole representation between Seyfarth and your employer, and you acknowledge and consent on your own behalf and on behalf of each member of your family that any sensitive personal or employment-related information provided to Seyfarth in this questionnaire, and any paper or digital documents you send to Seyfarth now or in the future, may be accessed by Seyfarth or by its third-party service-providers (who abide by security precautions comparable to those we impose upon ourselves) for the purpose of helping you and your family achieve your employer's immigration-related objectives. You also acknowledge and agree that mere payment of attorneys' fees or costs does not cause the person(s) making payment to become a client of a particular attorney or law firm receiving payment. Moreover, in the course of providing legal services solely to your employer, Seyfarth will likely be required to prepare and file one or more Forms G-28 (Notice of Appearance of Attorney) for submission to various government agencies, and you and/or your family members will be asked to cooperate by signing such form and consenting to the disclosure by the government of information bearing on any application or petition or immigration matter involving your family members or you. You acknowledge and agree that such consent will not create an attorney/client relationship between Seyfarth and you and your family members.

In order to accomplish your employer's objective of obtaining immigration-related legal benefits for your employer, you agree to maintain the confidentiality of information. You also agree that you and your family members shall not disclose such information to any outside third parties (other than for purpose of facilitating your employer's objectives and interests with respect to your immigration matter, e.g., by cooperating in an effort to obtain a credentials evaluation or a work-experience evaluation or employment verification letter, and by verifying the accuracy of and signing application or petition forms for submission to various federal or state government agencies).

Importance of Promptly Providing Information and Documents Requested by Seyfarth

The attorneys' fee for this immigration matter is based on the assumption that you and your employer will furnish accurate and truthful information and documentation, in a timely and efficient manner, as requested by Seyfarth in order to prepare your case. If it is necessary to perform work that is considered outside the scope of these case parameters, extra fees and charges may be incurred. Moreover, even though we file Forms G-28 with respect to immigration matters, government agencies may fail to send to us a copy of the case correspondence or decision. To ensure that the case is handled appropriately and in a timely manner, you agree to send to us a copy of any communication you receive from a government agency relating to the immigration matter that we are handling for your employer.

Importance of Truthful and Accurate Information and Documents Provided to Seyfarth

The information that we provide to the United States government agencies in this immigration matter is based on the information and documentation that you provide to us. Applicable laws may impose civil or criminal penalties on persons who directly or indirectly knowingly provide false, fraudulent or misleading information or who willfully fail to provide material information that under law must be disclosed.

Consent to Seyfarth to access CBP I-94 Record and/or Travel History Information

By clicking "I accept" I grant permission to Seyfarth (including its authorized agents) to access my I-94 record and/or travel history from the Customs and Border Protection (CBP) website. I also provide this consent on behalf of any immediate family members (i.e. spouse and/or children). Even though I am providing this consent, I understand that it remains my obligation to retrieve my I-94 record after each entry to the U.S., confirm that my I-94 record reflects the correct visa classification and the maximum period of authorized stay, and notify Seyfarth of any admission errors or discrepancies. I also understand that I am similarly obligated to retrieve and confirm the I-94 information for each member of my family and notify Seyfarth of any admission errors or discrepancies. In providing this consent, I am in no way giving up my responsibility to provide accurate information to Seyfarth.

Consent to Seyfarth's Sole Legal Representation as Attorneys for My Employer

By clicking "I accept," I consent, on my own behalf and that of my family members, and so certify to Seyfarth, that in this immigration matter: (1) Seyfarth's legal representation is solely as attorneys of and for my employer; (2) Seyfarth is not the lawyer for my family members or for me; (3) my family and I are always free to seek the advice of an attorney or attorneys of my/our choice in any immigration-related matter at my/our sole expense; (4) any legal advice that may be communicated by Seyfarth to my employer of which I and/or my family members become aware is communicated to me with the consent of my employer and without waiver of the attorney-client privilege solely in my capacity as an employee representative of my employer and not as a client of Seyfarth; and (5) that all of the information and documentation my family members and I will provide to Seyfarth in connection with my immigration matter are truthful, accurate and complete and, to the extent such information changes materially, my family members and I will provide updated information to Seyfarth. I understand that if I do not click "I accept" then no data will be submitted to Seyfarth and I will need to confer with my employer in order to move forward in this immigration matter.
